

SALESMAN VANISHES WITH HIS LITTLE SON AFTER VISITING WIFE

C. P. Brokaw and Child Missing Ten Days and Public Is Asked to Search.

The police were asked to-day to request public help in the hunt for Clarence P. Brokaw, an awning salesman, son of Theodore H. Brokaw, now of Colorado Springs, but formerly an officer of the National Bank at Broadway and Murray street, C. P. Brokaw, who until recently had been out of employment because of the closing of the Westfield, N. J., banking institution with which he was connected, had his six-year-old son, Clarence P. Brokaw, Jr., with him when he disappeared a week ago last Sunday.

While he was looking for a new position Mr. Brokaw lived at the Commodopolis Hotel in Chambers street. His wife and son lived with his wife's mother, Mrs. Louise Beaman, in Pilmpton avenue, Bronx. Mr. Brokaw visited his family every Sunday and usually took the boy out for a walk. He seemed in excellent spirits on his last visit and urged that he and his wife take up housekeeping again. She advised waiting until fall. He went out with the boy and did not return.

Nothing could be learned of him at the Commodopolis Hotel or at the store of his employers, Vause & Co., No. 19 Cooper square. His brother, who is in the Plumbing National Bank, had heard nothing of him.

Mr. Brokaw is described as thirty-two years old, with sandy complexion, reddish hair and gray eyes, weighing 125 pounds and having a deep scar on his back. He wore a dark brown hat, a striped suit, black shoes and black silk stockings. The boy is six years old, blonde, with light complexion and blue eyes and has a scar on his forehead. He wore a blue straw hat, a sailor suit with a red collar, white stockings and red shoes.

MANY MINERS OPPOSE THE PLAN FOR PEACE.

There is also Division at Wilkes-Barre as to the Length of the Contract.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., May 15.—There appeared to be strong opposition in the anthracite miners convention to-day to making the proposed agreement between the mine workers and the operators stand for a period of four years. Practically all the delegates who spoke on the question advocated either a one or two-year agreement.

The one notable exception was Thomas J. Kennedy, President of District No. 7, who favored making the term four years, so that it will expire at the same time that soft coal contracts run out. New wage agreements have just been entered into most of the soft coal fields in the West and these contracts usually run for two years.

Mr. Dempsey opposed arbitration. He thought a four-year agreement better than three years if they could not get two years.

Debate was closed on the four-year agreement proposition. It was decided not to vote on the first paragraph of the agreement until all had been considered.

NOTED AUTHOR DEAD.

James Henry Hayne Expires in Newton Centre, Mass.

BOSTON, May 15.—James Henry Hayne, an author and for many years prominent as foreign correspondent of American newspapers, died at his home in Newton Centre to-day.

Mr. Hayne was born in Winchester, Ill., in 1841. He enlisted in the first infantry company raised in Chicago in 1861 and served in the Army of the Cumberland. After the war he became a reporter in Chicago. From 1875 to 1877 he was foreign editor of the New York Times. In the latter year going to Paris as correspondent for the New Orleans Picayune and other papers.

He was president for several terms of the Association of Foreign Correspondence at Paris and was decorated with the crosses of the Legion of Honor (French) and Royal Order of the Saviour (Greek). He returned to America in 1885.

MRS. GENTNER DIVORCES HER LION-TAMING HUSBY.

Former Princess De Montgion Gets Decree in Newark From "Jack" Bonavita on Infidelity Charge.

Mercy De Argentine Gentner, who, previous to her marriage to Gentner, was Princess de Montgion of Paris, obtained a decree of divorce from John Frederick Gentner in Newark to-day. Gentner is known the world over as "Jack Bonavita," and is said to be the greatest animal tamer in the world. A few years ago a lion attacked him and he lost his right hand. He is now in Porto Rico, and his wife is in Florida. Gentner did not contest the suit, which was based on infidelity charges.

Mrs. Gentner, in the last few years, has won fame as a trainer of Pomeranian dogs, and she has a large kennel at Bergen Field, in Bergen County, N. J. She and Gentner were married June 28, 1885, at Camden, she having run away from friends in Philadelphia to be married. It is said that because of her marriage to the animal trainer her family in Paris practically disowned her.

SEVEN LIVES LOST IN FOREST FIRES.

BRILLINGHAM, Wash., May 15.—Seven men were burned to death and six square miles of timber and two camps of the English Logging Company, near Hamilton, were destroyed last night by a forest fire that swept Skagit County.

The property loss, in addition to the timber, was $100,000. The village of Dempsey's Camp has been completely wiped out and hundreds of refugees have been rescued by relief trains which arrived there last night.

HOODLUMS CATCH TARTAR.

Magistrate Murphy in Morrisania Court, to-day joined Magistrate House in declaring war on hoodlums in the Bronx section. Policeman Mulvihy, early to-day found fifteen young rowdies turning over rubbish, tossing down signs and trying to uproot telephone poles. He caught Lewis Sherman, twenty years old, No. 84 Columbus avenue; Frank Meyers, nineteen, of No. 85 West One Hundredth street; and Joseph Leonard, seventeen, of No. 107 West Ninety-fifth street.

"I hope House isn't sitting," one of the boys said to Mulvihy; "he would give us the limit."

The policeman repeated the remark to Magistrate Murphy.

"Well, I want you rowdies to understand that I have no more love for you than Magistrate House has," he said. "I am going to help rid this neighborhood of hoodlums. You go to the city prison for five days each."
